CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 (Purpose)

The purpose of this Act is to encourage the creation of designs by ensuring their protection and utilization, so as to contribute to the development of industry. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 2 (Definitions)

The terms used in this Act shall be defined as follows: <Amended by Act No. 5082, Dec. 29, 1995; Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 10809, Jun. 30, 2011>

1. The term "design" means the shape, pattern, or color, or a combination of these of an article (including part of an article (excluding Article 12) and font; hereinafter the same shall apply), which produces an aesthetic impression in the sense of sight;
- 1-2. The term "font" means a set of characters (including forms, such as numbers, letter marks, symbols, etc.) of the same style which is used for recording, marking or printing;
2. The term "registered design" means a design for which design registration has been granted;
3. The term "design registration" means examined design registration or unexamined design registration;

4. The term "examined design registration" means registration of a design subject to examination as to whether the application for design registration satisfies all the requirements for design registration;
5. The term "unexamined design registration" means registration of a design subject to examination as to whether the application for design registration satisfies the requirements for design registration under this Act, with the exception of the requirements not applicable under Article 26 (2);
6. The term "working of a design" means any act of manufacturing, using, assigning, leasing, exporting, importing, or offering for assignment or lease of (including displaying for the purpose of assignment or lease; hereinafter the same shall apply) an article to which a design has been applied.

Article 3 (Persons Entitled to Obtain Design Registration)

- (1) Any person who creates or succeeds to a design shall be entitled to obtain a design registration therefor in accordance with this Act: Provided, That employees of the Korean Intellectual Property Office and the Intellectual Property Tribunal shall not obtain a design registration during their employment at the office except for inheritance or bequest. <Amended by Act No. 4595, Dec. 10, 1993; Act No. 4894, Jan. 5, 1995; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(2) If two or more persons jointly create a design, the right to obtain a design registration shall be jointly owned.
<Amended by Act No. 4595, Dec. 10, 1993; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 4 (Legal Capacity of Minors, etc.)

(1) Minors, quasi-incompetents or incompetents shall not undertake the procedure for filing an application, requesting an examination, or any other procedure related to registration of designs (hereinafter referred to as "design-related procedure") unless represented by their legal representatives: Provided, That this shall not apply where a minor or a quasi-incompetent is capable of performing legal acts by becoming independent.

(2) The legal representative referred to in paragraph (1) may, without the consent of the family council, act in any procedure for objection against unexamined design registration, trial or retrial initiated by another party.

[This Article Wholly Amended by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-2 (Association, etc. which is not Corporation)

A representative or an administrator, who has been so designated by an association or a foundation, other than a corporation, may file an objection against any unexamined design registration, or appear as a plaintiff or a defendant in a trial or retrial in its association or foundation name.

Article 4-3 (Design Administrators for Overseas Residents)

(1) Any person who has neither an address nor a place of business in the Republic of Korea (hereinafter referred to as "overseas resident") may not, except where such overseas resident (or a representative thereof in cases of a corporation) is sojourning in the Republic of Korea, initiate any design-related procedure, nor appeal any disposition issued by an administrative agency in accordance with this Act or any order thereunder, unless he/she is represented by an agent with respect to such overseas resident's design, who has an address or a place of business in the Republic of Korea (hereinafter referred to as "design administrator").

(2) Each design administrator shall, within the scope of power delegated to him/her, represent a party in any design-related procedure and in any legal actions against a disposition issued by an administrative agency in accordance with this Act or any order thereunder.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-4 (Scope of Authority of Representation)

No agent who is delegated to undertake a design-related procedure by a person who has an address or a place of business in the Republic of Korea shall conduct any of the acts described in the following subparagraphs, unless expressly so empowered:

1. To abandon or withdraw an application for design registration, or to abandon a design right;

2. To withdraw an application;
3. To withdraw a request;
4. To request for a trial under Article 67-2 or 67-3;
5. To appoint a subagent.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-5 (Proof of Authority of Representation)

An agent of a person who is initiating a design-related procedure (including a design administrator; hereinafter the same shall apply) shall present a written proof of his/her authority of representation.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-6 (Ratification of Defects in Legal Capacity, etc.)

Design-related procedures, initiated by a person who has no legal capacity or authority of legal representation or who has defects in his/her delegated authority necessary to initiate such procedures, shall become effective retroactively to the time such procedures are performed if the procedures are ratified by the party concerned when he/she has gained capacity to proceed or by his/her legal representative.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-7 (Non-Extinguishment of Authority of Representation)

No authority of representation of an agent commissioned by a person undertaking a design-related procedure shall be extinguished due to any reason prescribed in the following subparagraphs:

1. Death or loss of legal capacity of the party concerned;
2. Extinguishment of the party concerned, which is a corporation, due to a merger;
3. Termination of the trust duty of the party concerned;
4. Death or loss of legal capacity of the legal representative;
5. Modification or extinguishment of the authority of representation of the legal representative.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-8 (Independence of Representation)

Where two or more agents of a person initiating a design-related procedure have been designated, each of them shall independently represent the party concerned before the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the President of the Intellectual Property Tribunal.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-9 (Replacement of Agents, etc.)

- (1) If the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or a Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge considers that a person initiating a design-related procedure is not qualified to conduct such procedure without difficulties or make oral statements, etc., he/she may order an agent to undertake the procedure.
- (2) If the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or a Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge considers that the agent of a person initiating a design-related procedure is not qualified to conduct such procedure without difficulties or make oral statements, etc. he/she may order the replacement of the agent.

(3) The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or a Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge may, in cases referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2), order the appointment of a patent attorney to undertake the procedure.

(4) The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or a Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge may invalidate, in part or in whole, a design-related procedure taken before the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the Intellectual Property Tribunal by the person initiating the design-related procedure referred to in paragraph (1) or by the agent referred to in paragraph (2) prior to the appointment or the replacement of the agent under paragraph (1) or (2) after the issuance of an order referred to in paragraph (1) or (2).

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-10 (Representation of Two or More Persons)

(1) Where two or more persons jointly initiate a design-related procedure, each of them shall represent the joint initiators except for actions falling under any of the following subparagraphs: Provided, That this shall not apply where those persons have appointed a common representative and have notified the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the President of the Intellectual Property Tribunal thereof:

1. Abandonment or withdrawal of an application for design registration;
 2. Withdrawal of an application;
 3. Withdrawal of a request;
 4. Request for a trial under Article 67-2 or 67-3.
- (2) Where the common representative has been appointed and notified under the proviso to paragraph (1), a written proof of the fact that the representative has been appointed shall be presented.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-11 (Mutatis Mutandis Application of the Civil Procedure Act)

Except where there are special provisions relating to agents in this Act, the provisions of Section 4 of Chapter II of Part I of the Civil Procedure Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to agents under this Act.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-12 (Jurisdiction for Overseas Residents)

If an overseas resident has appointed a design administrator with respect to his/her design right or any other right relating to a design, the domicile or place of business of the design administrator shall be regarded as the location of the property under Article 11 of the Civil Procedure Act;

where there is no such design administrator, the location of the Korean Intellectual Property Office shall be regarded as that of the property under Article 11 of the Civil Procedure Act.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-13 (Calculation of Period)

The period provided for in this Act or any orders thereunder shall be calculated as follows:

1. The first day of the period shall not be counted unless the period starts at midnight;
2. If the period is expressed in months or years, it shall be counted according to the calendar;
3. If the start of the period does not coincide with the beginning of a month or year, the period shall expire on the day preceding the date in the last month or year of the period corresponding to the date on which the period started: Provided, That where a month or year is used and there is no corresponding day in the last month, the period shall expire on the last day of that month;
4. If the last day of the period for executing a design-related procedure falls on an official holiday (including the Workers' Day under the Designation of Workers' Day Act) or Saturday, the said period shall expire on the working day following such holiday or Saturday.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-14 (Extension of Period, etc.)

- (1) The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the President of the Intellectual Property Tribunal may extend the period to amend the reasons for objecting unexamined design registration, etc. under Article 29-3 and the period for requesting a trial under Article 67-2 or 67-3, upon request or ex officio, only once by up to thirty days: Provided, That for the benefit of a person residing in an area that is remote and difficult to access, the number and period of extension may be increased.
- (2) When the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office, the President of the Intellectual Property Tribunal, a Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge or an examiner has set a period for a design-related procedure under this Act, he/she may extend or reduce it upon request, or may, ex officio, extend it. In such cases, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office, etc. shall decide on extension or reduction of such period so as not to unfairly jeopardize interest of interested parties for relevant procedures.
- (3) When a Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge or an examiner has set a date for initiating a design-related procedure under this Act, he/she may change the date upon request or ex officio.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-15 (Invalidation of Procedure)

- (1) When an applicant ordered to make an amendment in accordance with Article 17 fails to do so within the designated period, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the President of the Intellectual Property Tribunal may invalidate the design-related procedure.
- (2) When a design-related procedure has been invalidated under paragraph (1) and if the delay of the time is deemed to have been caused by reasons not attributable to an applicant ordered to make an amendment, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the President of the Intellectual Property Tribunal may revoke a disposition of invalidation at the request of the applicant ordered to make an amendment within 14 days from the date on which the reasons for the delay cease to exist: Provided, That this shall not apply where one year has elapsed after the designated period expires.
- (3) When the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the President of the Intellectual Property Tribunal orders a disposition of invalidation under paragraph (1) or revokes a disposition of invalidation under the main sentence of paragraph (2), he/she shall serve a notification of such measure on the person who has been ordered to make an amendment.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-16 (Subsequent Completion of Procedure)

If a person who initiated a design-related procedure has failed to observe the deadline for requesting a trial under Article 67-2 or 67-3 or the deadline for requesting a retrial under Article 73-3 due to any cause not attributable to himself/herself, he/she may subsequently complete the procedure that he/she has failed to take within 14 days after the said cause ceases to exist: Provided, That this shall not apply where one year has elapsed after the said period expired.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-17 (Succession of Procedural Effect)

The effect of a procedure taken in relation to a design right or any other right relating to a design shall extend to the successor in title thereof.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-18 (Continuation of Procedure by Successor)

Where a design right or other right relating to a design is transferred while a design-related procedure is pending in the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the Intellectual Property Tribunal, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge may have the successor in title continue the design-related procedure.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-19 (Interruption of Procedure)

If any design-related procedure pending in the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the Intellectual Property Tribunal falls under any of the following subparagraphs, it shall be interrupted: Provided, That this shall not apply where there is an agent authorized to perform the procedure:

1. When the party involved has deceased;
2. When the corporation involved has ceased to exist by reason of merger;
3. When the party involved has lost the ability to perform the procedure;
4. When the legal representative of the party involved has deceased or lost his/her authority of representation;
5. When the duty of a trustee entrusted by the party involved has terminated;
6. When the representative referred to in the proviso to the part other than the subparagraphs of Article 4-10 (1) has deceased or lost his/her qualification;
7. When a bankruptcy trustee, etc. who acted on behalf of the party involved in his/her own name under a certain qualification has lost his/her qualification or deceased.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-20 (Resumption of Interrupted Procedure)

When a procedure pending in the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the Intellectual Property Tribunal has been interrupted under Article 4-19, any person who falls under any of the following subparagraphs shall resume the procedure:

1. In cases of subparagraph 1 of Article 4-19, the deceased person's successor, administrator of inheritance, or any other person legally authorized to resume the procedure under an Act: Provided, That the deceased person's successor shall not resume the procedure until such time as his/her right to succession is no longer subject to renunciation;
2. In cases of subparagraph 2 of Article 4-19, the corporation established by or existing after the merger;
3. In cases of subparagraphs 3 and 4 of Article 4-19, the party whose ability to take the necessary procedure has been restored or any person who becomes the legal representative of the party, respectively;
4. In cases of subparagraph 5 of Article 4-19, a new trustee;
5. In cases of subparagraph 6 of Article 4-19, a new representative or each party involved;
6. In cases of subparagraph 7 of Article 4-19, a person having the same qualification.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-21 (Requests for Resumption)

- (1) Resumption of a procedure interrupted under Article 4-19 may be requested by a person falling under any subparagraph of Article 4-20 and the other party.
- (2) When resumption of a procedure interrupted under Article 4-19 is requested, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge shall notify the other party of such fact.
- (3) The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or an Administrative Industrial Design Judge shall, if he/she deems that a request for resumption of the procedure interrupted under Article 4-19 is groundless, after examining the request ex officio, dismiss the request by a decision.
- (4) The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or an Administrative Industrial Design Judge shall decide, upon request for resumption, whether to permit resumption of the interrupted procedure after a certified copy of the decision or trial decision is served.
- (5) If a person referred to in Article 4-20 fails to take over the interrupted procedure, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or an Administrative Industrial Design Judge shall, ex officio, order the person to resume such procedure by setting a period.
- (6) If no resumption has been made within the set period provided for in paragraph (5), it is considered that the resumption has been made on the day following the expiration of such set period.

- (7) If the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or a Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge deems that resumption is made in accordance with paragraph (6), he/she shall notify the parties involved thereof.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-22 (Suspension of Procedure)

- (1) If the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or an Administrative Industrial Design Judge is unable to carry out his/her duties due to a natural disaster or other extenuating circumstances, the procedure pending in the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the Intellectual Property Tribunal shall be suspended until such impediments cease to exist.
- (2) If a party involved is unable to resume a procedure pending in the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the Intellectual Property Tribunal on account of impediments for an indefinite period, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or an Administrative Industrial Design Judge may order its suspension by issuing a decision.
- (3) The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or an Administrative Industrial Design Judge may cancel the decision made under paragraph (2).

(4) If a procedure is suspended under paragraph (1) or (2), or a decision is canceled under paragraph (3), the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge shall notify the parties involved thereof.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-23 (Effect of Interruption or Suspension)

Where a design-related procedure pending is interrupted or suspended, the running of a term shall be suspended and the entire term shall start to run again from the time of the notification of resumption or continuation of the procedure.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 4-24 (Capacity of Foreigners)

Among overseas residents, foreigners shall not enjoy design rights or other rights relating to a design except as provided for in any of the following subparagraphs:

1. Where their countries allow nationals of the Republic of Korea to enjoy design rights or other rights relating to a design under the same conditions as their own nationals;
2. Where their countries allow nationals of the Republic of Korea to enjoy design rights or other rights relating to a design under the same conditions as their own nationals in cases where the Republic of Korea allows nationals of such countries to enjoy design rights or other rights relating to a design;

3. Where they may enjoy design rights or other rights relating to a design according to a treaty or any equivalent of a treaty (hereinafter referred to as "treaty").

CHAPTER II REQUIREMENTS AND APPLICATIONS FOR DESIGN REGISTRATION

Article 5 (Requirements for Design Registration)

(1) Designs industrially applicable may be registered unless they fall under any of the following subparagraphs:
<Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

1. Any design publicly known or publicly worked in the Republic of Korea or in a foreign country prior to the application for design registration;
 2. Any design which has been carried in a publication distributed in the Republic of Korea or in a foreign country, or which has become utilizable by the public through telecommunication lines prior to the application for design registration;
 3. Any design similar to a design falling under subparagraph 1 or 2.
- (2) Where a design could easily have been created by a person having ordinary skill in the art to which the design pertains, on the basis of a combination of designs falling under paragraph (1) 1 or 2 or on the basis of a shape, pattern or color or a combination thereof widely known in the Republic of Korea (excluding a design referred to in any of the subparagraphs of paragraph (1)) prior to the application for design registration, no design registration shall be granted for such design notwithstanding paragraph (1). <Amended by Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), no design registration shall be granted where a design for which an application for registration has been filed is identical with or similar to a part of a design indicated in a specification, represented in a drawing, photograph or sample attached to another application for design registration that was filed before and laid open, published or inserted in the Design Gazette pursuant to Article 23-6 after the filing date of the aforesaid design application. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>

Article 6 (Unregistrable Designs)

Notwithstanding Article 5, no design falling under any of the following subparagraphs shall be registered: <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>

Article 12 (Design of One Set of Articles)

- (1) Where two or more articles are used together as one set of articles, and where the design of such set of articles has a unity as a whole, the design may be applied for registration as one design. <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (2) The classification of a set of articles referred to in paragraph (1) shall be determined by Ordinance of the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Energy. <Amended by Act No. 4541, Mar. 6, 1993; Act No. 5082, Dec. 29, 1995; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 8852, Feb. 29, 2008; Act No. 11690, Mar. 23, 2013>
- (3) Deleted. <by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001>

Article 13 (Confidential Designs)

- (1) An applicant for design registration may request that the design be kept confidential for a prescribed period not exceeding three years from the registration date of establishment of the design right: Provided, That for a design for which multiple design registration has been applied, the request shall be made for all designs for which a design registration is applied. <Amended by Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(2) An applicant for design registration may make the request referred to in paragraph (1) from the date he/she applies for the design registration until the date he/she pays the first design registration fee: Provided, That where the registration fee has been exempted pursuant to Article 35 (1) 1 and (2), he/she may make such request until the registration for establishment of the design right prescribed in Article 39 (2) is made. <Amended by Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>

(3) An applicant for design registration or an owner of design right may reduce or extend the period fixed by him/her under paragraph (1) by a request. In such cases, where he/she extends that period, it shall not exceed three years from the registration date of establishment of the design right. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(4) In any of the following cases, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office shall comply with a request for inspection of confidential design under paragraph (1): <Amended by Act No. 4894, Jan. 5, 1995; Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

1. Where the request is made by a person who has obtained the consent of the owner of the design right;
2. Where the request is made by a party or an intervener in an examination, objection against unexamined design registration, trial, retrial or litigation proceedings relating to a design identical with or similar to the design kept confidential;
3. Where the request is made by a person who has clearly stated that he/she was warned of infringement of the design right;
4. Where the request is made by a court or the Intellectual Property Tribunal.

(5) In cases of a request for laying open of application under Article 23-2, the request pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be deemed to have been withdrawn. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997>

Article 14 (Applications for Design Registration Filed by Unentitled Persons and Protection of Lawful Holders)

Where design registration could not be granted under Article 26 (1) 3 because the applicant for design registration, who was not the creator of the design nor the successor to the right to obtain design registration, was not a person entitled to obtain design registration (hereinafter referred to as "unentitled person") pursuant to the main sentence of Article

3 (1), a subsequent application filed by the lawful holder shall be deemed to have been filed on the date of the application previously filed by the unentitled person: Provided, That this shall not apply where the subsequent application is filed by the lawful holder after 30 days have elapsed since the unentitled person failed to obtain design registration. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>

Article 15 (Design Registration Obtained by Unentitled Persons and Protection of Lawful Holders)

If design registration is revoked or invalidated by a trial decision for lack of entitlement to obtain design registration under the main sentence of Article 3 (1), a subsequent application for design registration filed by the lawful holder shall be deemed to have been filed at the time of filing of the application for design registration which was revoked or invalidated: Provided, That this shall not apply where the subsequent application is filed after 30 days have elapsed since the decision to revoke or to invalidate it became final and binding. <Amended by Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 16 (Earlier Application)

(1) Where two or more applications for design registration relating to the same or a similar design are filed on different dates, only the applicant who files the application first may obtain registration for the design.

<Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(2) Where two or more applications for design registration relating to the same or a similar design are filed on the same date, only one person agreed upon by all applicants after consultation may obtain registration for the design and, if no agreement is reached or no consultation is possible, none of the applicants shall obtain the registration therefor. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(3) Where an application for design registration is invalidated, withdrawn or abandoned, or a decision to reject an application for design registration or a trial decision to reject an application for design registration becomes final and binding, the application for design registration shall, in applying the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2), be deemed to have never been filed: Provided, That where a decision or a trial decision to reject an application for design registration becomes final and binding because the application falls under the latter part of paragraph (2), this shall not apply. <Amended by Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>

(4) An application for design registration filed by a person who is not the creator of a design, nor successor entitled to obtain design registration shall, in applying the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2), be deemed to have never been filed. <Amended by Act No. 4595, Dec. 10,

1993; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

- (5) The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office shall, in cases of paragraph (2), order the applicants to notify him/her of the results of the consultation within a designated period; if such notification is not made within the designated period, the applicants shall be deemed not to have concluded agreement under paragraph (2). <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 17 (Amendment of Procedure)

The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the President of the Intellectual Property Tribunal shall order the amendment of a procedure for design registration within a designated period where the procedure falls under any of the following subparagraphs: <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 6767, Dec. 11, 2002; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007; Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>

1. Where it violates Article 4 (1) or 4-4;
2. Where it violates the formalities specified in this Act or orders by this Act;
3. Where the official fees to be paid in accordance with Article 34 have not been paid.

Article 18 (Amendment of Application and Change of Gists)

- (1) Any applicant for design registration may amend matters mentioned in the written application, drawings attached to the written application, matters described in the drawing, pictures and samples to the extent that the gists of the initial application for design registration are not changed.

- (2) Any applicant for design registration may make amendments to the application for similar design registration for changing it into the application for independent design registration, and vice versa.
- (3) Notwithstanding Article 8 (2), any person who intends to have the provisions of paragraph (1) of the same Article applied in make amendments to an application for similar design registration for changing it into an application for independent design registration shall record the purport in the written amendment and submit it to the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office, and shall submit a paper verifying it to the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office within 30 days from the date when the written amendment is submitted. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>
- (4) Any applicant for design registration may make amendments to the application for unexamined design registration for changing it into the application for examined design registration, and vice versa.
- (5) Any applicant for design registration may amend matters pursuant to paragraphs (1) through (4) before a notification of decision to grant design registration under

Article 28 or a notification of decision to reject design registration under Article 26 (hereinafter referred to as "decision to grant or reject design registration") is served: Provided, That where a request for retrial under Article 27-2 is filed, amendments may be made when such request for retrial is filed. <Amended by Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007; Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>

- (6) Where it is acknowledged after the registration of establishment of a design right that the amendments pursuant to paragraphs (1) through (4) were made to change the gists of the initial application for design registration, the application for design registration shall be deemed to have been filed at the time of submitting the written amendment. <Amended by Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>

Article 24 (Succession to Right to Obtain Design Registration)

- (1) No succession to the right to obtain a design registration before filing of an application for the design registration may be duly asserted against a third party unless the successor in title files the said application.
- (2) Where two or more applications for design registration are filed on the same date on the basis of the right to obtain a design registration for the same design derived by succession from the same person, the succession to the right to obtain a registration by any person, other than the one agreed upon by all the design registration applicants, shall not be effective.
- (3) If the right to obtain a design registration is succeeded after an application for the design registration is filed, the succession shall not be effective without a notice of change of applicant filing for a design registration, except for the cases of inheritance and other general succession.
- (4) Upon inheritance or other general succession with respect to the right to obtain a design registration, the successor in title shall notify the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office of the purport without delay.

(5) Where two or more notices of the change of applicant are made on the same date, on the basis of the right to obtain a design registration that has been derived by succession from the same person, a notice given by any person, other than the one agreed upon after consultations among all the persons who gave notices, shall not be effective.

(6) Article 16 (5) shall apply mutatis mutandis to cases under paragraphs (2) and (5).

Article 26 (Decisions to Reject Design Registration)

(1) An examiner shall render a decision to reject design registration where an application for design registration falls under any of the following subparagraphs: <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>

1. Where design registration cannot be made in accordance with Articles 4-24, 5 through 7, 9 (6), 10, 11, 11-2, 12, and 16 (1) and (2);
2. Deleted; <by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001>
3. Where the applicant is not entitled to obtain a design registration under the main sentence of Article 3 (1), or where the applicant is unable to obtain a design registration under the proviso to Article 3 (1);
4. Where the application for design registration is in violation of the provisions of a treaty;
5. Where the application for unexamined similar design registration falls under any of the following items:
 - (a) Where a design registered as a similar design or a design for which similar design registration has been applied, is indicated as a basic design;
 - (b) Where the term of the design right of a basic design has expired;

- (c) Where an application for basic design registration has been invalidated, withdrawn, or abandoned, or where a decision to reject basic design registration becomes final and binding;
 - (d) Where an applicant for unexamined similar design registration is not identical with the owner of a basic design right or an applicant for basic design registration;
 - (e) Where a design for which unexamined similar design registration is applied is not similar to a basic design.
- (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the provisions of Articles 5, 7, and 16 (1) and (2) shall not apply to an application for unexamined design registration: Provided, That where the design that has been filed for unexamined design registration is not industrially applicable pursuant to the main sentence of Article 5 (1), or can be easily created on the basis of the shape, pattern or color, or a combination thereof which is widely known in the Republic of Korea under Article 5 (2), a decision to reject the design registration shall be rendered. <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>
- (3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), an examiner may render a decision to reject an unexamined design registration pursuant to paragraph (1) on the basis of information and evidence concerning an application for unexamined design registration for which information and evidence have been provided pursuant to Article 23-5. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 32 (Payment of Registration Fees by Interested Parties)

- (1) Regardless of the intent of a person liable to pay a registration fee, any interested party may pay such fee.
- (2) An interested party who has paid the registration fee in accordance with paragraph (1) may request reimbursement of the fee from a person liable to it to the extent that the person liable to it receives any profit therefrom at present.

Article 33 (Late Payment, etc. of Registration Fees)

- (1) Any person wishing to register the establishment of a design right, or an owner of a design right, may make late payment of the registration fee within six months from the expiration of the payment period under Article 31 (3). <Amended by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>
- (2) Where late payment of the registration fee is made under paragraph (1), an amount determined by Ordinance of the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Energy within the extent not exceeding twice the amount of the registration fee shall be paid. <Amended by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009; Act No. 11690, Mar. 23, 2013>
- (3) Where the registration fee is not paid within the period of late payment referred to in paragraph (1) (referring to cases where remainder payment is not made within the period of remainder payment referred to in Article 33-2 (2), if, in spite of the expiration of the period of late payment, the period of remainder payment does not expire), a person intending to register the establishment of a design right shall be considered to have withdrawn the application for design registration, and the design right of the owner thereof shall be considered to have been extinguished retroactively to the day following the expiration date of the period covered by the registration fee paid under Article 31 (1) or (2). <Amended by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>

Article 33-2 (Remainder Payment of Registration Fees)

- (1) Where a person wishing to register the establishment of a design right or an owner of a design right fails to pay part of the registration fee within the period fixed under Article 31 (3) or 33 (1), the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office shall order him/her to pay the remaining portion. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>
- (2) A person who receives an order to pay the remaining portion under paragraph (1) may make the remainder payment of the registration fee within one month after the order is received.
- (3) A person who makes the remainder payment of the registration fee under paragraph (2) shall pay an amount determined by Ordinance of the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Energy within the extent not exceeding twice the amount of the unpaid registration fee, if he/she falls under any of the following subparagraphs: <Amended by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009; Act No. 11690, Mar. 23,

2013>

1. Where he/she pays the remaining portion of the registration fee after the period of payment under Article 31 (3) has elapsed;
2. Where he/she pays the remaining portion of the registration fee after the period of late payment under Article 33 (1) has elapsed.

1. The establishment, transfer, extinguishment, restoration, or restriction on disposal of a design right;
2. The establishment, maintenance, transfer, modification, extinguishment, or restriction on disposal of an exclusive or non-exclusive license;
3. The establishment, transfer, modification, extinguishment, or restriction on disposal of a pledge on a design right or on an exclusive or non-exclusive license.

(2) The Design Register under paragraph (1) may be stored in whole or in part in electronic format, such as an electronic recording medium. <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(3) Necessary matters for the particulars and procedures of registration, etc. other than those provided for in paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 38 (Issuance of Design Registration Certificate)

(1) When the establishment of a design right has been registered, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office shall issue a design registration certificate to the owner of the design right. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

- (2) When a design registration certificate does not coincide with the Design Register or other documents, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office shall, upon request or ex officio, reissue the design registration certificate with amendments, or issue a new design registration certificate. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

CHAPTER V DESIGN RIGHT

Article 39 (Registration of Establishment of Design Right)

- (1) A design right shall be created by dint of the registration of its establishment. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (2) When a registration fee has been paid in accordance with Article 31 (1), the late payment of a registration fee has been made in accordance with Article 33 (1), the remainder payment of a registration fee has been made in accordance with Article 33-2 (2), the payment or remainder payment of a registration fee has been made in accordance with Article 33-3 (1), or an exemption from payment of a registration fee has been granted in accordance with Article 35 (1) 1 or (2), the

- (3) When a registration pursuant to paragraph (2) has been made, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office shall publicize the registration by inserting matters prescribed by Presidential Decree, such as the name and address of the owner of the design right, design registration number, etc., in the Design Gazette. <Amended by Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>

Article 40 (Duration of Design Right)

- (1) The duration of a design right shall be 15 years from the date of registration of its establishment: Provided, That the expiration date of the duration of a design right relating to a similar design shall be the expiration date of the duration of the design right relating to a basic design. <Amended by Act No. 4595, Dec. 10, 1993; Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (2) Where the establishment of a design right is registered under Article 15 with respect to an application for design registration of a lawful holder, the duration of the design right under paragraph (1) shall be counted from the day following the date of registration of the design right previously filed by an unentitled person. <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 41 (Effect of Design Right)

An owner of a design right shall, as a business, have the exclusive right to work a registered design and a design similar thereto: Provided, That where the design right is subject to an exclusive license, this shall not apply to the extent that the exclusive licensee has the exclusive right to work the registered design or a design similar thereto under Article 47 (2). <Amended by Act No. 4595, Dec. 10, 1993; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 42 (Design Right for Similar Designs)

A design right relating to a similar design as provided for in Article 7 (1) shall be incorporated in a design right for its basic design. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 43 (Scope of Protection of Registered Designs)

The scope of protection of a registered design shall be determined by the matters entered in an application for design registration, the design represented in a drawing or photograph attached to the application, and in the explanation of the design described in the sample and drawing. <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 44 (Scope to which Effect of Design Right is not Extended)

(1) The effect of a design right shall not extend to any of the following: <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

1. Working of a registered design for the purpose of research or experiment;

2. Vessels, aircraft or vehicles merely passing through the Republic of Korea, or the machinery, instruments, equipment or other things used therein;
3. Things existing in the Republic of Korea since an application for design registration was filed.

(2) Where a font is registered as a design right, the effect of such design right shall not extend insofar as it falls under any of the following subparagraphs: <Newly Inserted by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

1. Where the font is used in the ordinary process, such as typing, typesetting, printing, etc.;
2. Where it is the resulting material produced by the use of font pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph 1.

Article 45 (Relationship with Another Person's Registered Design, etc.)

(1) Where a registered design is made by use of another person's registered design or design similar thereto, patented invention, registered utility model or registered trademark under an application filed prior to the filing date of the application for the registration of the design concerned, or where a design right conflicts with another person's patent right, utility model right or trademark right under an application filed prior to the filing date of the application for registration of the design concerned, the owner of the design right or exclusive or non-exclusive licensee shall not work, as a business, the registered design without the permission from the owner of the earlier design right, patent right, utility model right or trademark right, or without compliance with Article 70. <Amended by Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(2) Where a design similar to a registered design is made by use of another person's registered design or design similar thereto, patented invention, registered utility model or registered trademark under an application filed prior to the filing date of the application for the registration of the design concerned, or where a right of the design similar to the registered design conflicts with another person's design right, patent right, utility model right or trademark right under an application filed prior to the filing date of the application for registration of the design concerned, the owner of the design right or exclusive or non-exclusive licensee shall not work, as a business, the design similar to the registered design without the permission from the owner of the earlier design right, patent right, utility model right or trademark right, or without compliance with Article 70. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(3) Where a registered design or a design similar thereto is made by use of, or conflicts with, another person's copyright, effective prior to the filing date of the application for registration of the design concerned, the owner of the design right or exclusive or non-exclusive licensee shall not work, as a business, the registered design or design similar thereto without the permission from the owner of the copyright. <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 46 (Assignment and Joint Ownership of Design Right)

- (1) A design right may be assigned: Provided, That a design right for a basic design and a design right for a similar design thereto shall be assigned together. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (2) Where a design right is owned jointly, each joint owner may neither assign his/her share nor establish a pledge upon it without the consent of all the other joint owners. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (3) Where a design right is owned jointly, each joint owner may, except as otherwise agreed by a contract among all the joint owners, work the registered design or the design similar thereto by himself/herself without the consent of the other joint owners. <Amended by Act No. 4595, Dec. 10, 1993; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (4) Where a design right is owned jointly, each joint owner may neither establish an exclusive license nor permit a non-exclusive license under the design right without the consent of all the other joint owners. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

- (5) A design right registered as a multiple design may be divided and transferred for each design. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 47 (Exclusive License)

- (1) An owner of a design right may establish an exclusive license on the design right for another person. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (2) An exclusive licensee who has an exclusive license established under paragraph (1) shall have the exclusive right to work the registered design or the design similar thereto, within the limit provided for in the act of establishment. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (3) An exclusive licensee shall not transfer the exclusive license without the consent of the owner of the design right, except where it is transferred together with the business in which it is worked or where inheritance or other general succession takes place. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (4) An exclusive licensee shall not establish a pledge or grant a nonexclusive license on the exclusive license without the consent of the owner of the design right. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (5) The provisions of Article 46 (2) through (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis to exclusive licenses.

Article 48 (Effect of Registration of Design Right and Exclusive License)

(1) Each of the following shall be of no effect unless it is registered:

1. The transfer (excluding cases through inheritance or other general succession) or extinguishment by abandonment, or restriction on the disposal of a design right;
2. The grant, transfer (excluding cases through inheritance or other general succession), modification, extinguishment (excluding cases through confusion), or restriction on the disposal of an exclusive license;
3. The establishment, transfer (excluding cases through inheritance or other general succession), modification, extinguishment (excluding cases through confusion), or restriction on the disposal of a pledge on a design right or exclusive license.

(2) Inheritance of, or other general succession relating to a design right, exclusive license, and pledge under any subparagraph of paragraph (1) shall be notified, without delay, to the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office.

license on his/her design right for another person.
<Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

- (2) A non-exclusive licensee shall have the right to work the registered design and a design similar thereto within the limit provided for in this Act or the act of establishment. <Amended by Act No. 4595, Dec. 10, 1993; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (3) A non-exclusive license under Article 70 shall be transferred together with the relevant design right of the non-exclusive licensee, and shall be extinguished at the same time as the relevant design right is extinguished. <Amended by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>
- (4) No non-exclusive license, other than those described in paragraph (3), may be transferred without the consent of the design right holder (or the design right holder and the exclusive licensee in cases of a non-exclusive license on an exclusive license), unless the transfer is made together with the underlying business or through inheritance or other general succession. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>
- (5) No pledge may be established on a non-exclusive license, other than those under paragraph (3), without the consent of the design right holder (or the design right holder and the exclusive licensee in cases of a non-exclusive license on an exclusive license). <Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>

(6) Article 46 (2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis to non-exclusive licenses. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>

Article 50 (Non-Exclusive License by Prior Use)

Where, at the time of filing an application for design registration, a person who has created the design which is identical with or similar to the design in an existing application, without having prior knowledge of the design in the application, or has learned the design from the creator, and has been working the design in the Republic of Korea, or has been making preparations therefor, such person shall have a non-exclusive license for the design right to the design applied for registration, to the extent of the objective of design and project which he/she works or prepares for. <Amended by Act No. 4595, Dec. 10, 1993; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>

Article 50-2 (Non-Exclusive License by Earlier Application)

Where, at the time of registering the establishment of a design right of another person, a person (excluding those falling under Article 50) who has created the design which is identical with or similar to the design in an existing application, without having prior knowledge of the design in the application, or has learned the design from the creator, and has been working the design in the Republic of Korea, or has been making preparations therefor, such person shall have a non-exclusive license for the design right, to the extent of the objective of design and project which he/she works or prepares for:

1. It is required that he/she applied for registration of the design or similar design before the date when another person applied for design registration for the establishment and registration of design right, and has started or has prepared to start a business practicing the design regarding the application for design registration;
2. It is required that a decision or a trial decision to reject an application for design registration filed ahead of others for a design referred to in subparagraph 1 has been final and binding.

Article 51 (Non-Exclusive License due to Working prior to Registration of Request for Invalidation Trial)

- (1) Where a person falling under any of the following subparagraphs has been working a registered design or a design similar thereto or has been making preparations therefor in the Republic of Korea, prior to the registration of a request for an invalidation trial on the design registration concerned, without knowing that the design registration is subject to invalidation, such person shall have a non-exclusive license on that design right or on the exclusive license existing at the time the design registration was invalidated, to the extent of the objective of design and project which he/she works or prepares for: <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007; Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>

1. The original owner of the design right, where one of two or more design registrations granted for the same or a similar design has been invalidated;
 2. The original owner of the design right, where his/her design registration has been invalidated and a design registration for the same or a similar design has been granted to a lawful holder;
 3. A person who has already been granted an exclusive or non-exclusive license, or non-exclusive license on the exclusive license, at the time of registration of the request for an invalidation trial on the design right that has been invalidated in cases of subparagraph 1 or 2 and who falls under any of the following items:
 - (a) A person who has completed registration of the non-exclusive license or exclusive license concerned;
 - (b) A person who has been granted a non-exclusive license falling under Article 52-2 (2).
- (2) A person who has been granted a non-exclusive license in accordance with paragraph (1) shall pay reasonable consideration for the right to the owner of the design right or the exclusive licensee. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 52 (Non-Exclusive License After Expiration of Duration of Design Right, etc.)

- (1) Where a design similar to a registered one conflicts with a design right which has been registered prior to or on the date of application for registration of the design (hereinafter referred to as "original design right"), the owner of the original design right shall have a non-exclusive license with respect to the design right within the scope of the original design right when the duration of original design right expires, or have a nonexclusive license with respect to the exclusive license of the design right which exists at the time the duration of original design right expires. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (2) In cases of paragraph (1), an exclusive licensee of an original design right which exists at the time the duration of the original right expires, or a non-exclusive licensee registered under Article 52-2 (1), shall have a non-exclusive license with respect to the design right within the scope of the original design right, or have a non-exclusive license with respect to the exclusive license of the design right which exists at the time the duration of original design right expires. <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007; Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>
- (3) The provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis where a registered design or a design similar thereto conflicts with a patent right or a utility model right which has been registered prior to or on the date of application for design registration, and where the duration of the patent right or utility model right expires.

<Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

- (4) A non-exclusive licensee pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) (including cases as applicable mutatis mutandis in paragraph (3)) shall pay reasonable consideration for it to the owner of the design right or the exclusive licensee in relation to the design right.

CHAPTER VI PROTECTION OF OWNERS OF DESIGN RIGHTS

Article 62 (Right to Seek Injunction against Infringement, etc.)

(1) An owner of a design right or exclusive licensee may demand a person who is infringing or is likely to infringe on his/her rights to discontinue or prevent such infringement. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(2) An owner of design right or exclusive licensee of a design which has been requested to be kept confidential pursuant to Article 13 (1) shall not claim pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), until he/she issues a warning by submitting a document certified by the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office, as prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Energy, on the following matters regarding such design: <Newly Inserted by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 8852, Feb. 29, 2008; Act No. 11690, Mar. 23, 2013>

1. Name and address (in cases of a corporation, its title and location of the main office) of the owner of the design right or the exclusive licensee (limited to cases where the exclusive licensee requests);
2. Number and date of an application for design registration;
3. Number and date of an design registration;
4. Drawings, pictures or contents of samples attached to the written application of design registration.

(3) An owner of a design right or an exclusive licensee who makes a demand under paragraph (1) may request the destruction of the articles which resulted from the act of infringement, the removal of the facilities used for the act of infringement, or other measures necessary to prevent the infringement. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 63 (Acts Deemed Infringement)

The acts of commercially or industrially manufacturing, assigning, leasing, exporting, importing or offering for assigning or leasing, as a business, articles used exclusively for the manufacture of articles to which a registered design or design similar thereto is applied shall be deemed an infringement of the design right or exclusive license. <Amended by Act No. 4595, Dec. 10, 1993; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 10809, Jun. 30, 2011>

Article 64 (Presumption, etc. of Amount of Damages)

(1) Where an owner of a design right or exclusive licensee claims compensation from a person who has intentionally or negligently infringed the design right or exclusive license and the latter transfers articles which cause the infringement, the amount of damages suffered by the owner of the design right or exclusive licensee may be calculated by multiplying the number of transferred articles by the profit per unit of the articles that the owner of the design right or exclusive licensee might have sold in the absence of said infringement. In such cases, the amount of damages shall not exceed the amount calculated by multiplying, the number obtained by subtracting the number of articles actually sold from the number of articles which the owner of the design right or exclusive licensee could have produced, by the estimated profit per unit: Provided, That where circumstances, except the acts of infringement, exist that prevent the owner of the design right or exclusive licensee from selling some of articles, a sum equivalent to the number of transferred articles subject to said circumstances shall be deducted. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

- (2) Where an owner of a design right or exclusive licensee claims compensation for damages from a person who has intentionally or negligently infringed the design right or exclusive license, the profits gained by the infringer as a result of the infringement shall be presumed to be the amount of damage suffered by the owner of the design right or exclusive licensee. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (3) An owner of a design right or exclusive licensee may claim, the amount of money which he/she would normally be entitled to receive for the working of the registered design from the person who has intentionally or negligently infringed the design right or exclusive license, as the amount of damages suffered by him/her by the infringement. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (4) Notwithstanding paragraph (3), where the amount of damages exceeds the amount referred to in the same paragraph, the amount in excess may also be claimed as compensation for damages. In such cases, the court may take into consideration the fact that there has been neither willfulness nor gross negligence on the part of the person who has infringed the design right or the exclusive license when awarding damages. <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

- (5) In litigation relating to the infringement of a design right or an exclusive license, where the court recognizes that the nature of the facts of the case makes it difficult to provide evidence proving the amount of damages that has occurred, notwithstanding paragraphs (1) through (4), the court may determine a reasonable amount on the basis of an examination of the evidence and a review of all the arguments. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 65 (Presumption of Negligence)

- (1) A person who has infringed a design right or exclusive license of another person shall be presumed to have been negligent regarding such act of infringement: Provided, That this shall not apply to the infringement of a design right or exclusive license relating to a design registered as a confidential design under Article 13 (1). <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (2) The provisions of paragraph (1) shall apply mutatis mutandis where an owner of a design right or exclusive or non-exclusive licensee of design of unexamined design

registration infringes another person's design right or exclusive license. <Newly Inserted by Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 66 (Recovery of Reputation of Owner of Design Right, etc.)

Upon the request of an owner of a design right or exclusive licensee, the court may, in lieu of damages or in addition thereto, order a person who has injured the business reputation of the owner of a design right or exclusive licensee by intentionally or negligently infringing the design right or exclusive license, to take necessary measures to recover the business reputation of the said owner or exclusive licensee. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 67 (Submission of Documents)

In litigation relating to the infringement of a design right or exclusive license, the court may, upon the request of a party, order the other party to submit documents necessary for the assessment of damages caused by such infringement: Provided, That this shall not apply when the person possessing the documents has justifiable reasons for refusing to submit them.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001]

Article 68 (Trial to Invalidate Design Registration)

(1) An interested person or an examiner may request a trial to invalidate design registration in any of the following cases. In such cases, a request may be made with respect to each design for which an application for multiple design registration is filed pursuant to Article 11-2: <Amended by Act No. 4595, Dec. 10, 1993; Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007; Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>

1. Where the registration is in violation of Article 4-24, 5, 6, 7 (1), 10, 16 (1) or (2);
 2. Where a person is not entitled to obtain a design registration under the main sentence of Article 3 (1) or unable to obtain a design registration under the proviso to Article 3 (1);
 3. Where the registration has been effected contrary to the provisions of a treaty;
 4. Where an owner of a design right, after the design registration, is no longer capable of enjoying the design right under Article 4-24, or the design registration no longer complies with a treaty.
- (2) A trial under paragraph (1) may be requested even after the extinguishment of a design right. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (3) Where a trial decision to invalidate a design registration (excluding a similar design registration) has become final and binding, the design right shall be deemed to have never existed: Provided, That where a trial decision to invalidate a design registration has become final and binding under paragraph (1) 4, the design right shall be deemed not to have existed from the time the design registration first fell under the said subparagraph. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>
- (4) Where a trial decision to invalidate a basic design registration has become final and binding, a similar design registration shall also become invalid. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(5) Where a trial decision to invalidate similar design registration has become final and binding or where similar design registration becomes invalid under paragraph (4), the similar design right shall be deemed to have never existed: Provided, That where a trial decision to invalidate similar design registration under paragraph (1) 4 has become final and binding, the similar design right shall be deemed not to have existed from the time the similar design registration first fell under the said subparagraph. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(6) Where a trial for invalidation under paragraph (1) has been requested, the Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge shall notify the exclusive licensee of the design right and other persons who are entitled to obtain a design registration of the purport of such request. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 69 (Trial to Confirm Scope of Design Right)

The owner of a design right, exclusive licensee or interested parties may request a trial to confirm the scope of the design right in order to confirm the protection scope of the registered design. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>

Article 70 (Trial for Granting Non-Exclusive License)

(1) If the owner of a design right, or exclusive or non-exclusive licensee, desires to obtain permission to work the registered design or a design similar thereto as such design falls under Article 45 (1) or (2), and if the other party refuses to grant permission without justifiable grounds or it is impossible to obtain such permission, the said owner or exclusive or non-exclusive licensee may request a trial for granting a non-exclusive license to the extent necessary to work the registered design or a design similar thereto. <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(2) If a person who has granted a non-exclusive license under paragraph (1) desires to work the registered design or design similar thereto which is owned by the non-exclusive licensee, and if the latter rejects to permit the working of such design or if it is impossible to obtain such permission, he/she may request a trial to grant a non-exclusive license within the scope necessary to work the registered design or a design similar thereto. <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(3) A non-exclusive licensee under paragraphs (1) and (2) shall pay consideration to the patentee, the owner of the utility model right, the owner of the design right or the exclusive licensee thereof: Provided, That if payment is impossible for reasons beyond the control of the said non-exclusive licensee, the consideration shall be deposited. <Amended by Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

- (4) No non-exclusive licensee under paragraph (3) shall work the patented invention, registered utility model or registered design or design similar thereto without payment of consideration or deposit thereof. <Amended by Act No. 4595, Dec. 10, 1993; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 71 (Mutatis Mutandis Application of Provisions on Examination to Trial against Decision to Reject Design Registration)

- (1) The provisions of Article 18 (1) through (4), the main sentence of Article 18 (5), Articles 18-2, 27 and 28 shall apply mutatis mutandis to a trial against a decision to reject design registration. In such cases, "before a notification of decision to grant design registration under Article 28 or decision to reject design registration under Article 26 (hereinafter referred to as "decision to grant or reject design registration") is served" in the main sentence of Article 18 (5) shall be construed as "within the deadline designated for submission of argument by notification of grounds for rejection", "where an applicant requests a trial under Article 67-2" in Article 18-2 (3) shall be construed as "where an action has been brought pursuant to Article 75-1", and "until the trial decision has become final and binding" in Article 18-2 (3) shall be construed as "until the ruling has become final and binding". <Amended by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009>

(2) Articles 18-2 (1) and (4) and 27 applied mutatis mutandis under paragraph (1) shall apply only where the grounds for rejection differ from the grounds for the examiner's original decision to reject design registration.

Article 72-2 (Formal Requirements of Request for Trial)

(1) Any person who intends to request a trial shall submit a written request to the President of the Intellectual Property Tribunal, stating the following:

1. The names and domiciles of the parties (in cases of a corporation, its title and location of the place of business);
2. The name and domicile, or location of the place of business, of the agent, if designated (if the agent is a patent corporation, its title, location of office and designated patent attorney's name);
3. Identification of the trial case;
4. The purport of the request and the grounds therefor.

(2) No amendment to a written request for a trial submitted under paragraph (1) shall be made with regard to the intent or purpose thereof: Provided, That this shall not apply when such amendment falls under any of the following subparagraphs:

1. An amendment (including supplementation) is made to correct the description of an owner of the design right among the parties prescribed by paragraph (1) 1;
2. The ground for a request is amended under paragraph (1) 4;
3. At a trial requested by an owner of a design right or an exclusive licensee as a petitioner to confirm the scope of a design right, the drawings of the design subject to confirmation on the written request for a trial are amended by the petitioner in order to make them identical with the design which is used by the defendant, in cases where the defendant insists that the design subject to confirmation on the written request for a trial (referring to the defendant's design claimed by the petitioner) is different from the design which is used by him/herself.

- (3) When a trial is requested to confirm the scope of a design right under Article 69, drawings that can be compared with the registered design shall be attached to the written request.
- (4) A written request for a trial to grant a non-exclusive license under Article 70 (1) shall, in addition to the particulars referred to in paragraph (1), state the following:
 1. The number and title of his/her registered design to be worked;
 2. The number, title and date of patent or registration of the other party's patented invention, registered utility model or registered design to be worked;
 3. The scope, duration and consideration for the non-exclusive license for a patented invention, registered utility model or registered design.

Article 72-26 (Trial Decisions)

- (1) Except as otherwise provided for, when a trial decision has been rendered, the trial shall be closed.

- (2) A trial decision under paragraph (1) shall be rendered in writing, signed and sealed by the Administrative Industrial Design Judges who have rendered it, and shall state the following matters:

1. The number of the trial;
2. The names and domiciles of the parties and intervenors (in cases of a corporation, its title and location of the place of business);
3. The name and domicile or place of business of the agent, if any (if the agent is a patent corporation, its title, place of office and name of the designated patent attorney);
4. The identification of the trial case;
5. The text of the trial decision (including the scope, duration and consideration of a non-exclusive license in trial cases under Article 70);
6. The grounds for the trial decision (including the purport and a summary of the ground for the request);

7. The date of the trial decision.
- (3) When a case has been thoroughly examined and is ready to be ruled, the Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge shall notify the parties and intervenors of the closure of the trial examination.
- (4) Even after notification of the closure of a trial examination under paragraph (3), the Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge may, if necessary, reopen the case upon the request of a party or intervenor or ex officio.
- (5) A trial decision shall be rendered within 20 days following the date on which notification of the closure of the trial examination is served under paragraph (3).
- (6) When a trial decision or a decision has been rendered, the Presiding Administrative Industrial Design Judge shall serve a certified copy of the trial decision or decision on the parties, intervenors, and persons who have requested intervention in the trial but have been rejected.

CHAPTER VIII RETRIAL AND

LITIGATION

Article 73 (Request for Retrial)

- (1) Any party may request a retrial on a trial decision that has become final and binding.
- (2) Articles 451 and 453 of the Civil Procedure Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to requests for retrial under paragraph (1). <Amended by Act No. 6626, Jan. 26, 2002; Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007>

Article 73-2 (Request for Retrial on Trial Decision of Fraudulence)

- (1) Where the parties in a trial acted in collusion for the purpose of causing a trial decision to be rendered which damages the rights or interests of a third party, the third party may request a retrial against the trial decision which has become final and binding.
- (2) Where a request for a retrial under paragraph (1) is filed, the parties of the trial shall be joint defendants.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 73-3 (Period for Requesting Retrial)

- (1) A retrial shall be requested within 30 days from the date on which the petitioner becomes aware of the grounds for the retrial after the trial decision became final and binding.
- (2) Where a retrial is requested by reason of defects in the authority of representation, the period provided for in paragraph (1) shall be counted from the day following the date on which the petitioner or his/her legal representative becomes aware that the trial decision has been rendered, by means of service of a certified copy of such trial decision.

(3) No request for a retrial shall be filed after the expiration of three years from the date on which the trial decision becomes final and binding.

(4) Where grounds for a retrial arise after the trial decision has become final and binding, the period prescribed in paragraph (3) shall be counted from the day following the date on which the grounds first accrue.

(5) Paragraphs (1) and (3) shall not apply to a request for a retrial on the grounds that the trial decision conflicts with a final and binding trial decision previously rendered.

[This Article Newly Inserted by Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009]

Article 74 (Restriction on Effects of Design Rights Restored by Retrial)

(1) In any of the following cases, no effect of a design right shall be extended to goods imported in good faith, or produced or acquired in the Republic of Korea after the trial decision becomes final and binding but before a request for a retrial is registered: <Amended by Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

1. Where a design right (including a design right that has been finally and bindingly revoked in a trial against a decision to revoke a design registration) had been invalidated but is restored by a retrial;

2. Where, after a trial decision became final and binding, ruling that a product was outside the scope of the design right, a decision to the contrary at a retrial has become final and binding;

3. Where a trial decision to reject an application for design registration has become final and binding but the establishment of the design right is registered by a retrial.

(2) Where a design right falls under any subparagraph of paragraph (1), the effect of the design right shall not extend to any of the following acts: <Amended by Act No. 5082, Dec. 29, 1995; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004; Act No. 10809, Jun. 30, 2011>

1. Working of the design in good faith after the trial decision became final and binding but before the request for a retrial is registered;

2. Manufacturing, assigning, leasing, exporting, importing, or offering for assigning or leasing of the products to which the registered design has been applied, after the trial decision became final and binding but before the request for a retrial is registered.

Article 74-2 (Non-Exclusive License for Prior User of Design Right Restored by Retrial)

For cases which fall under any subparagraph of Article 74 (1), any person who has been, in good faith, commercially conducting a business using the relevant design in the Republic of Korea, or has been preparing therefor, after a trial decision became final and binding but prior to the registration of a request for retrial, shall have a non-exclusive license on the design right to the extent of the design and of the purpose of business which is being conducted or prepared for.

CHAPTER IX SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Article 76 (Inspection, etc. of Documents)

(1) A person who needs certification of application for a design registration or trial, etc., delivery of a certified copy or extract of documents, inspection or copy of the Design Register or other documents may request the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the President of the Intellectual Property Tribunal to do so. <Amended by Act No. 4894, Jan. 5, 1995; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

(2) The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the President of the Intellectual Property Tribunal may reject a request under paragraph (1) if the required document relates to an application that is not laid open and the establishment of design right is not registered, or it is liable to contravene public order or virtuous manners and customs. <Amended by Act No. 4894, Jan. 5, 1995; Act No. 5082, Dec. 29, 1995; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 77 (Prohibition of Carrying Out or Opening of Documents Relating to Application, Examination, Trial, etc.)

(1) Documents relating to applications for design

registration, examinations, applications for objection against unexamined design registration, trials or retrials, and the Design Register shall not be carried out to the outside unless they fall under any of the following subparagraphs: <Amended by Act No. 8187, Jan. 3, 2007; Act No. 9764, Jun. 9, 2009; Act No. 10012, Feb. 4, 2010>

1. Where documents relating to an application for design registration or examination are carried out to the outside in order to investigate, etc. into a prior design pursuant to Article 25-2 (1) or (2);
 2. Where documents relating to an application for design registration, examination, application for objection against unexamined design registration, trial or retrial, and the Design Register are carried out to the outside for the entrustment of affairs of digitizing design documents pursuant to Article 77-2 (1);
 3. Where documents relating to an application for design registration, examination, application for objection against unexamined design registration, trial or retrial, and the Design Register are carried out to the outside for on-line remote performance of duties pursuant to Article 32 (2) of the Electronic Government Act.
- (2) A response shall not be given to a request for an expert opinion, testimony or an inquiry as to the contents of a pending application for design registration, examination, objection against unexamined design

registration, trial or retrial or as to the contents of a trial decision or ruling. <Amended by Act No. 5354, Aug. 22, 1997; Act No. 6413, Feb. 3, 2001; Act No. 7289, Dec. 31, 2004>

Article 77-2 (Agency for Affairs of Digitizing Design Documents)

- (1) Where it is considered necessary to deal effectively with design-related procedures, the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office may entrust any corporation equipped with facilities and manpower prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Energy with affairs of digitizing documents relating to design registration applications, examinations, applications for objection against unexamined design registration, trials or retrials or the Design Register through an electronic information processing system and the technology of utilizing the electronic information processing system, or any affairs similar thereto (hereinafter referred to as "affairs of digitizing design documents"). <Amended by Act No. 11690, Mar. 23, 2013>
- (2) No present or former executive or employee of a person entrusted with the affairs of digitizing design documents pursuant to paragraph (1) (hereinafter referred to as "agency for digitizing design documents") shall divulge nor appropriate confidential information on a design contained in a pending application to which he/she had access during the course of his/her duties.

(3) The Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office may, pursuant to paragraph (1), digitize written applications for design registration or other documents prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Energy, which are not submitted in electronic documents prescribed in Article 4-28 (1), and may record them in a file of an electronic information processing system operated by the Korean Intellectual Property Office or the Intellectual Property Tribunal.
<Amended by Act No. 11690, Mar. 23, 2013>

(4) The details written in a file under paragraph (3) shall be deemed to be same as those entered in the relevant documents.

(5) Methods of performing affairs of digitizing design documents and other matters necessary therefor shall be determined by Ordinance of the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Energy. <Amended by Act No. 11690, Mar. 23, 2013>

(6) Where any agency for digitizing design documents which falls short of the standards for the facilities and manpower prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Energy under paragraph (1) fails to take corrective measures therefor requested by the Commissioner of the Korean Intellectual Property Office, the latter may cancel the entrustment of the affairs of digitizing design documents to the said agency. In such cases, he/she shall first provide the agency an opportunity to present its opinion thereabout. <Amended by Act No. 11690, Mar. 23, 2013>

Article 81-2 (Order to Preserve Confidentiality)

- (1) In a lawsuit against infringement of a design right or an exclusive license, where a party clearly explains all the grounds of the matters prescribed in each of the following subparagraphs with respect to the trade secret (referring to the trade secret defined in subparagraph 2 of Article 2 of the Unfair Competition Prevention and Trade Secret Protection Act) that he/she possesses, the court may order, at the request of such party, by its decision the other party (in cases of a corporation, the representative thereof), litigation representative of the parties, and other persons who have learned the trade secret in the course of the lawsuit concerned not to use such trade secret for purposes other than continuous proceedings of the lawsuit concerned or not to disclose it to any person other than those who have received such order with respect to the trade secret under this paragraph: Provided, That this shall not apply where the other party (in cases of a corporation, the representative thereof), litigation representatives of the parties, and other persons who have learned the trade secret in the course of the lawsuit concerned had already acquired the trade secret before the request is filed through other means than the inspection of preparatory documents or the examination of evidence:

1. That the trade secret is contained in the preparatory documents already submitted or to be submitted or in the evidence already examined or to be examined;
2. That, where the trade secret referred to in subparagraph 1 is used or disclosed for purposes other than proceedings of the lawsuit concerned, it is likely to interfere with the business of the party and, accordingly, it is necessary to restrict the use or disclosure of such trade secret.

(2) Request for the order under paragraph (1) (hereinafter referred to as "order to preserve confidentiality") shall be filed in writing wherein each of the following matters are included:

1. Persons who shall be subject to the order to preserve confidentiality;
2. Facts with which it is sufficient to specify the trade secret which shall be subject to the order to preserve confidentiality;
3. Facts to support the grounds that he/she falls under each subparagraph of paragraph (1).

(3) Where a judgement on an order to preserve confidentiality is made, the court shall deliver the written decision thereof to the persons ordered to preserve confidentiality.

(4) An order to preserve confidentiality shall take its effect at the time the written decision thereof is delivered to a person ordered to preserve confidentiality.

(5) A court decision of dismissal or rejection of the order to preserve confidentiality may be subject to an immediate appeal.

Article 81-3 (Revocation of Order to Preserve Confidentiality)

- (1) If any of the requirements under Article 81-2 (1) is not fulfilled or is no longer fulfilled, the person who has filed the request for an order to preserve confidentiality or any person who has been ordered to preserve confidentiality may file a request for revocation of such order with the court where trial records are kept (where there exists no court where trial records are kept, referring to the court that has ordered to preserve confidentiality).
- (2) Where the court makes a judgement with respect to a request for the revocation of an order to preserve confidentiality, the written decision thereof shall be delivered to the person who has filed the request and the other party thereof.
- (3) A judgement of the court on a request for the revocation of an order to preserve confidentiality may be subject to an immediate appeal.
- (4) A judgement of the court to revoke an order to preserve confidentiality shall take its effect at the time such judgement is concluded.
- (5) Where there exists any person who is not the person who has filed a request for the revocation of an order to preserve confidentiality nor the other party thereof, the court which has made a judgement to revoke the order to preserve confidentiality shall immediately inform such person of the fact that it has made a judgement on the revocation of the order to preserve confidentiality.
